WORLD NEIGHBORS

P. O. Box 500
Redlands, California
November 14, 1960

Director
International Council of Women
150 Avenue Victor Hugo
Paris 16e, France

Dear Director,

I am a public school teacher of English and social science.

I also write a weekly public service column in the Sunday Los Angeles Examiner entitled World Neighbors. It is devoted to improving world understanding through personal correspondence of people all over the world.

Thousands of Americans of all ages have responded and are writing to World Neighbors, but I need more people from other countries who wish to write to the USA.

I would greatly appreciate your announcing my need to your membership through your regular publications or any other means you deem appropriate.

This is not a simple pen-pal, or lonely hearts club type of thing. In fact we discourage this type of letter, but it is a serious effort to remove misunderstanding through the exchange of opinions, ideas and information. There is no charge at any time to anyone who participates.

All your members need to do is to write to me at the above address giving their age, marital status, occupation and interests. World Neighbors will match them with an appropriate American who will write to them.

I am confident that such an exchange of viewpoint if done on a large enough scale will contribute greatly to our efforts toward world peace.

Anything your organization can do to help will be greatly appreciated. Thank you.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. P. S. Hagerman

P. S. Letters may be in French, English, German, Spanish, Portuguese or any other language which is in general use. We will secure translation.
